

Specialisation Committee Vetsuisse Faculty Bern:

Teaching Residency Programme in Small Animal Surgery

Brief content description:

A three-year training programme following the guidelines of the European College of Veterinary Surgery.

Duration and Location:

The programme lasts for 3 years and includes rotations in radiology, neurology/medicine, clinical pathology/pathology, anaesthesiology, and emergency medicine.

In addition to clinical work, publication as a first author and another publication as a co-author or a case report as a first author in a peer-reviewed journal is required.

Programme Objective:

Attainment of the title Diplomate of the European College of Veterinary Surgery.

Further information:

Weiterbildungsprogramme - Kleintierklinik

Open position:

Offene Stellen - Departement für klinische Veterinärmedizin

Publications:

Publikationen - Kleintierklinik

Links:

<http://www.ecvs.org/>

Programme leader:

Prof. Dr. Franck Forterre, Kleintierklinik

E-mail: franck.forterre@unibe.ch